

WE Clean detects and corrects inaccurate record elements in your database, eliminates duplicates, and provides expanded information about your audience.

Don't Suffer the Ill Effects of Bad Data

Your data is your organization's most valuable asset. But dirty data can cost you time, money, and potentially your reputation.

With up-to-date mailing addresses, telephone numbers, age, email addresses, and deceased person indicators, WE Clean ensures you can engage faster with more confidence.

Keep your contact information up-to-date

Add names and postal addresses to your email database using reverse email append with access to over 150 million U.S. residential and business listings that are updated monthly.

Bringing it all together for you

We take the hassles out of updating and cleaning your data. WE Clean consists of two services combined to help you achieve your objectives: data enrichment and wealth appends.

Filling in the data gaps

WE Clean appends data and overlays to ensure your records are current and actionable. These services deliver the most accurate and robust wealth intelligence information on all of your contacts.

Services include:

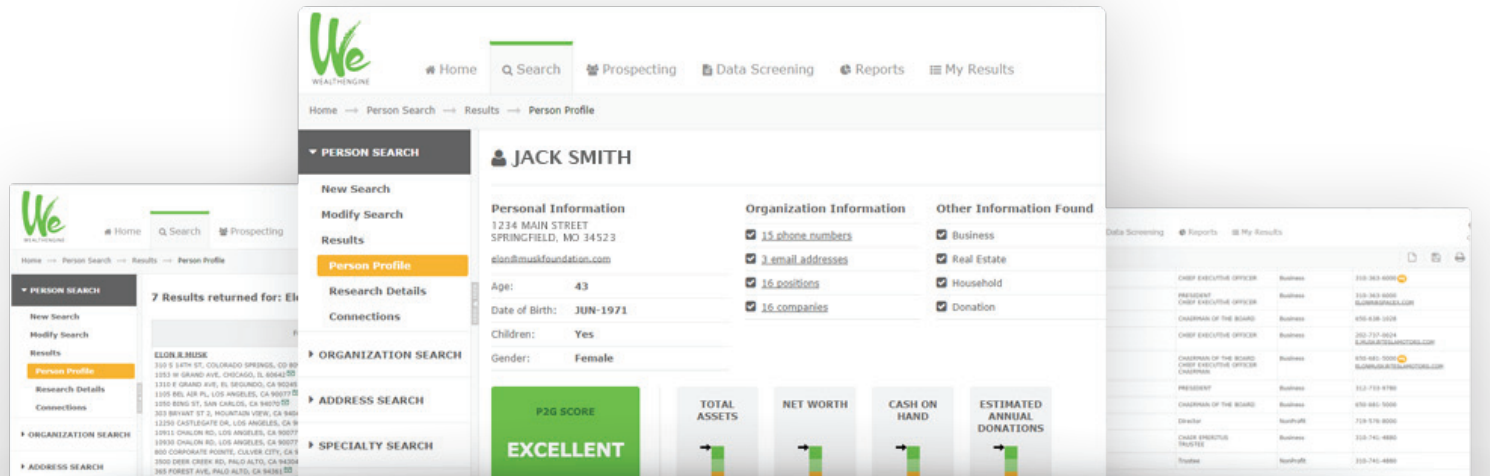

- » Address (NCOA)
- » Deceased Person Indicator
- » Telephone Overlay
- » Age Overlay
- » E-mail Append

Know more about your audience

Fill in the knowledge and data gaps

Improve your data quality

Reduce marketing and outreach costs

Combining data enrichment with wealth appends, allows you to draw conclusions and make informed decisions.

Know More with Wealth Appends

WE offers a robust set of wealth ratings and scores to help you identify, segment, and prioritize customers and prospects with the right attributes.

Scores include total assets, net worth, cash on hand, propensity to spend, propensity to give, charitable giving and more.

- » Matches to all data sources
- » Ratings and scores to help identify top prospects and segment others
- » Calculated at household level
- » Provides Inner Circle connections
- » Quick turnaround of results
