

WE Search tells you more about a prospect or customer's wealth, capacity to spend, invest or give, with in-depth profiles and advance research capabilities across wealth, real estate, family connections and more.

The Best Wealth Intelligence, When and Where You Need It

Delivered via the FindWealth 8 platform, WE Search provides online, parametric search on over 300 million individual profiles and 122 million households in the US.

Developed by aggregating and normalizing data from over 60 sources to generate a massive repository of proprietary insights, WE Search is the industry's only unified wealth and lifestyle intelligence database.

Powerful Integration Capabilities

Simple and easy to use, WE Search puts the power to know more at your fingertips and is available wherever you work, with seamless integration into your Donor Management System (DMS) and Customer Relationship Management (CRM) environments. So, best-of-breed CRM does not have to come at the expense of best-of-breed data.

Do More than Ever Before

With over 35 integrations and counting, WE makes it easy to add wealth intelligence to your business processes.

Know More than Ever Before

Our profiles contain insight on an individual's net worth, income, assets, real estate, stock holding, charitable contributions and other financial related data as well as business and personal contact information.

The cornerstone of our profiles is our proprietary wealth ratings and scores. Our ratings and scores, developed leveraging 20+ years of experience in wealth intelligence, provides deeper insight into a prospect.

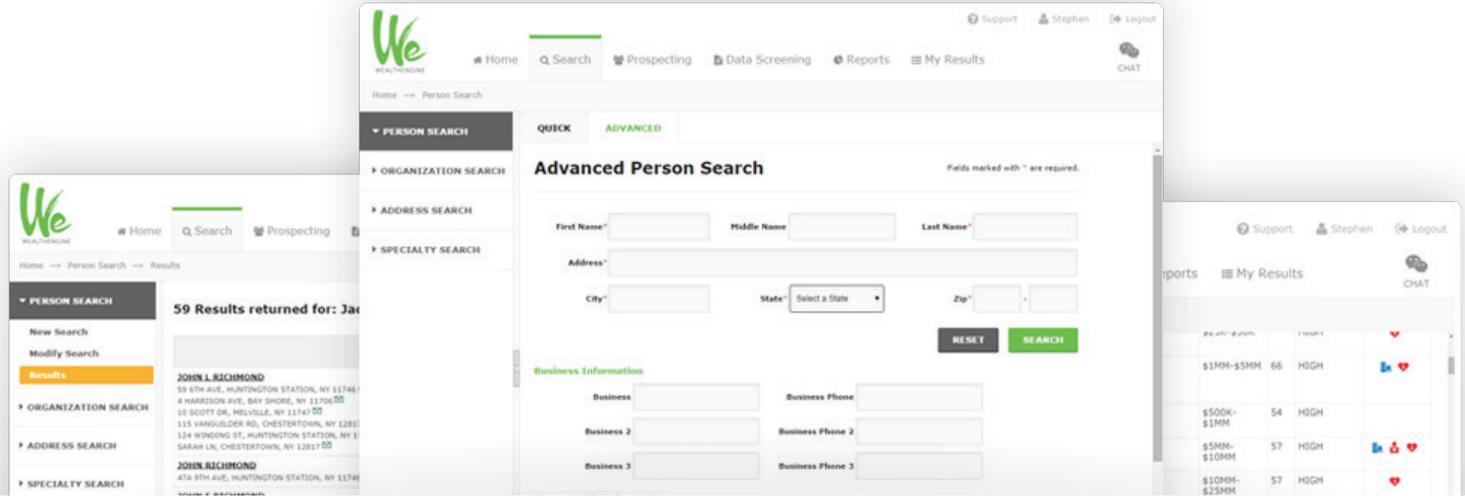

In addition to wealth, our profiles provide insight to a host of demographic and lifestyle attributes from some of the leading data sources for in-depth customer insights. Also features in depth stock and real estate research.
